MISS BENNETT TO ADDRESS WOMAN'S CLUB.

Mrs. Harry January, secretary of the Consumers' league of Missouri, who was to have addressed the Rock Island Woman's club at its January meeting Saturday, is prevented by illness from filling her engagement. At the 11th hour Mrs. T. B. Davis was able to procure as her substitute Miss Helen M. Bennett, head of the Chicago bureau of occupation, who will speak on "Women in Industry." Miss Bennett is said to be an interesting speaker and her work lies with this placement bureau that deals with a great variety of occupations. It is to investigate and develop new lines of work for women. Its benefits are not only confined to specially trained women, but it extends its aid to women of ability and to advising young girls when planning their studies to fit them for some special line of work. Miss Bennett has been at the head of the bureau since it was opened. She is a graduate of Wellesley college and a woman whose widely varied experience enables her to conduct this work with marked success. The musical numbers will be given by Miss Mabel Bohman, violinist, who will play "Reverie," (Volte); "Loure," (Bach) and "Toccata Polka," (Heft).

TECHNICAL STUDY OF OPERA LOHENGGRIN.

A program out of the ordinary and one of much interest to music students was given yesterday afternoon at the January meeting of the Rock Island Musical club at the New Harper. Miss Katherine Gest with the assistance of Miss Effie Johnson at the piano gave a technical study of the opera "Lohengrin" by Richard Wagner. The club during the present season is taking at each meeting one of the more common of the operas and making a brief study of it, telling the story of the drama and giving illustrations of the more familiar parts of the score. Miss Gest had prepared a careful analysis of the drama, describing each scene, its setting and meaning and interpretation. She described the various motives that recur throughout the opera and there were illustrated by Miss Johnson at the piano as Miss Gest spoke. It was an excellently prepared program and of great benefit to the music student who wants to get something out of her music. The opera in itself is most musical and the various motives were explained to show the thought of the composer throughout the composition. Mrs. Charles Montgomery and Mrs. Leo Wynne at the piano illustrated the opera score playing the prelude to the first act and giving other illustrations throughout the score. In the absence of Mrs. T. B. Reidy, who was to have sung "Elsa's Dream" and Lohengrin's "Narrative," the numbers were given on the violin, as sung by Galski and Edwards.

The annual recital given by the club at the West End settlement was announced as having been postponed from Friday, Jan. 14, to Tuesday, Jan. 18. At this time the "Kinder-Symphonie" by Haydn will be given with special numbers by Mrs. Reidy, Miss Esther Malmrose and Mrs. J. E. Clarkson.

The next regular meeting of the club will be held Feb. 1 when Humperdinck's "Hansel and Gretel" will be given.

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I have a boy friend who calls on me Wednesdays and Sunday evenings and I like him very much and he seems to like me. But about a week ago he said maybe he would be over and I staid home waiting for him to come and he did not show up. He didn't even call me up and say he wasn't coming and so I had to sit home and just wait. He never calls me up over the phone to ask to come to see me. When he goes I ask when I shall see him again, but he has never said it first. Still he takes me out to parties and to shows and it seems to me he likes me. What shall I do?

THANK YOU.
When a boy wants to come to see you let him ask, and if he doesn't ask let him stay away. A girl should not say, "When shall I see you again?" An indefinite engagement is very disagreeable and usually turns out the way yours did. In the future don't expect a boy to come unless he says definitely that he will be there.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) There is a boy writing to me and I do not care to answer his letters. What shall I do?

(2) Is it all right for a girl of 15 to have a boy friend take her to church on Sunday night? When they return should she ask him in?

(3) There is a boy in the neighborhood that my parents want me to go with and I do not want to for I do not like him. What shall I do about it?

(4) Can you tell me what causes one's face to get red and hot when in a crowd? Is it caused by being bashful?

KITTY.
(1) Ignore his letters and he will soon stop writing.

(2) It is all right for a boy and girl to go to church, and as it is not late when church is over it would be all right for the girl to ask him in for a little while.

(3) If I were in your place, I would act in such a way that the boy would not care to go with me. This is a matter in which you ought to be considered.

(4) An over-heated room, excitement, nerves. Mrs. Josephine Barnhardt served light refreshments, acting as hostess to the club. The next hostess in two weeks will be Mrs. Fritz Hedlin, 611 Twenty-third street, Moline.

HOFFER-LEWIS.

ment or nervousness is usually the cause of the face getting red.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) A fellow from out of town came to see me not very long ago and kissed me unexpectedly when he left. I was very angry and told him so frankly, but he did not take me seriously I fear. When he comes again I am afraid that he will do the same thing. How can I prevent him?

(2) I am 17 years old and my mother declares that lavender is too old for me. I want a lavender silk dress. It is a becoming color and I do not consider it too old. What do you advise?

(1) By your actions you may have given the boy reason to think that you would like to have him kiss you. When he comes again be on your guard not to give him that impression.

(2) There are so many pretty colors besides lavender, why don't you get something else? I think that lavender would be rather too old. You ought to be able to wear salmon pink, flesh color, pale green or blue.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: My hair is light. What colors can I wear best? L. M. R.

Pink, the different shades of blue, green, brown and grey are colors for blondes.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) I received a Christmas card and did not write a note of thanks. Was it necessary?

(2) Is it all right to accept a boy's school banner or pin? And should I send one of mine in return?

GRATEFUL D.

(1) A Christmas card calls for no answer.

(2) It is all right to accept a banner or pin, but it is not at all necessary to return any and in most cases it would not be advisable to do so.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

CHEESE DISHES.

Cheese Balls—To two packages of Neufchatel cheese add half teaspoon onion juice and two tablespoons lemon juice. Add dash of ground tabasco if desired. Mold into small balls with butter paddles and serve with lettuce as salad.

Cheese Fondue—Take two tablespoons melted butter, add four tablespoons flour, mix until smooth, add one cup milk or cream, cook until thick. Take from fire, add yolks of three eggs, six tablespoons grated cheese, salt and pepper. Beat whites of eggs stiff and add to other ingredients, then turn into greased dish. Bake 20 minutes in hot oven. Serve at once.

Toasted Cheese—Take slices of bread cut three-fourths inch thick and fresh cheese cut in thin slices and laid on the bread. Place on inverted dripping pan, put in moderately hot oven and watch closely for a few minutes, or until the cheese melts, then spread evenly. Eat hot with a little salt, butter or mustard, as preferred.

THE TABLE.

Fried Oysters—Select large oysters. Roll in fine cracker crumbs, pat into shape, dip in beaten egg, roll again in cracker crumbs and fry on both sides in deep fat (smoking hot) as you would doughnuts. Do not use butter for frying, as it burns too quickly and makes oysters soggy.

Beef With Brown Gravy—Take piece of boiling beef, cook until broth is rich enough for soup, then take beef out of broth. Sprinkle with three tablespoons hot butter (must be fried very brown), then pour half pint of hot water over it with heaping teaspoon of salt, and let simmer one hour. This makes a very rich gravy and the beef very tender. Add a pinch of sage or a salt onion for flavoring, and use the broth for vegetable soup.

Baked Pork Chops—Six good-sized pork chops, one and one-half cups sliced onions, one cup water, two teaspoons salt, one-eighth teaspoon pepper, one pint canned tomatoes. Flour chops and fry them till slightly browned. Cover with the sliced onion, pour over the water, put on lid and simmer half an hour. Add tomatoes and bake 30 minutes more in moderate oven.

Creamed Cabbage—Shred a small head of cabbage very fine, cook 20 minutes in salt water, adding a pinch of soda, then drain and add half cup sweet milk and two small slices of bacon. Let simmer about 15 minutes.

Date Pudding—Soak one-half cup pearl tapioca in one pint cold water over night. In the morning add one-half cup sugar and one-half pound dates cut in small pieces, and a pinch of salt. Cook two hours in double boil-

Here's Palate Joy for You—also stomach comfort beyond belief. Heat a Shredded Wheat Biscuit in the oven to restore crispness, then cover with sliced bananas and pour over it milk or cream. Sweeten it to suit the taste. A complete, perfect meal supplying more strength-giving nutriment than meat or eggs at a cost of three or four cents. A warm, nourishing breakfast—a delicious lunch.
